	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. We do not disclose rank wise merit list to anybody as part of our policy. However, the List of admitted students with their category but without their rank in the merit list can be provided and is attached as Annexure-I. 2. The letter from INSPIRE issued to IISERs state that there will be only limited scholarships for all IISERs combined (ca. 585) and IISERs should send the merit list to INSPIRE to disburse the respective scholarships. 3. Govt. of India guidelines for reservation (SC, ST, OBC) regarding INSPIRE fellowship may be obtained from the respective Govt. of India portal.

Reply of Application (आवेदन का उत्तर)		4. The criteria followed for selecting students for INSPIRE scholarship is their rank in the merit list prepared by JAC 2016 (Joint Admission committee 2016) which is not to be disclosed as a part of our policy. However, the scholarship is disbursed merit-wise. Higher merit gets higher preference for scholarship. Please note that the candidates of various reservation categories have been allotted seats at IISERs following GOI rules and relaxation was granted in the eligibility criteria for the applicants of various reservation categories (https://www.iiseradmission.in would provide you with an idea of the same). 5. As mentioned in point number 1 we do not disclose rank wise merit list as a part of our policy. In addition for the same reason we also cannot disclose the name of the committee members. The committee members execute the job following the policy approved by the IISER Admission Board (IAB). 6. Since we do not disclose ranks hence we cannot provide the list asked through question number 6. The total admitted students list (Annexure-I) and the list of students nominated for INSPIRE (Annexure-II) has been provided. 7. The list of students who were nominated for INSPIRE scholarship is attached (Annexure-II). The list also has their respective categories.
