Date: 4.09.2026

कार्यालय आदेश / OFFICE ORDER

Subject: Awareness regarding prohibition of ragging and consequences thereof as per the Anti-raging resolution clause No-6.2q

Dear Parent/Guardian,

I am pleased to inform you that your ward, who has completed his/her first year at IISER Kolkata of the BSMS/RS/MP/IP/MR Programme at the Institute.

At the end of the academic year, I am directed to draw your attention to the UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009, and the applicable laws and regulations prohibiting ragging.

Ragging is strictly prohibited within the Institute, hostels, campus, and in any activity or location connected with the Institute. Any act of ragging, whether committed directly or indirectly, may attract strict disciplinary action as well as legal consequences.

Students are expected to maintain a respectful, safe and inclusive environment for all members of the Institute community. Depending upon the nature and severity of the incident, the consequences of ragging may include warning, suspension, cancellation of admission, expulsion from the Institute/hostel, withholding of academic benefits, and other disciplinary or legal action as applicable under the prevailing rules and laws.

You are requested to discuss this matter with your ward and advise them to:

1. Refrain from participating in or encouraging any form of ragging.
2. Immediately report any incident or suspected incident of ragging to the appropriate Institute authorities.
3. Cooperate with the Institute in maintaining a safe and respectful campus environment.
4. Be aware that remaining a silent participant, encouraging ragging, or assisting those involved may also have serious consequences under the applicable rules.

The Institute remains committed to providing a safe and ragging-free environment for all students. Your cooperation and support in sensitising your ward about the seriousness of ragging will be highly appreciated.

Parents/guardians are requested to apprise their wards of the prohibition of ragging and the serious consequences and punishments prescribed under the applicable UGC Regulations and law. They are also requested to advise their wards to maintain discipline and refrain from participating in, abetting, or encouraging any form of ragging upon returning to the Institute for the subsequent academic session.

The Institute remains committed to maintaining a safe, inclusive and ragging-free academic and residential environment for all students.

Parents/guardians may refer to the Institute's Anti-Ragging webpage for further information regarding the Anti-Ragging Committee, Anti-Ragging Squad, contact details, regulations, and preventive measures.

With best wishes to your ward for the successful completion of the forthcoming academic year.

Yours sincerely,

Goushik Dutta
